Forecast for Saturday 09 Apr 2022

Weather: A cold and frosty start across the park with mostly clear skies, perhaps with a little cloud across the west of the park. Cloud will bubble up from mid-morning, perhaps with the odd isolated shower from midday. Remaining mostly dry with some decent sunny spells into the afternoon with skies readily clearing from early evening leading to a cold and frosty night to come.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 80%

Low cloud and visibility: Periods of cloud in the west of the park above 600m at first, soon lifting and clearing. Isolated patches of cloud may form around the highest summits for a time late morning, but otherwise most hills cloud free. Generally excellent visibility with superb air clarity and distant hills clearly visible.

Meteorologist's View

A cold and frosty start will make some surfaces a little slippery, however despite the sunshine it will feel cold especially near summits and higher ridges. Appropriate warm winter clothing will be necessary.
